Hanna's Green Seal "THE MADE-TO-WEAR PAINT"

Has stood the test of time and has been improved in quality with the passing years. Many brands of paint are offered for sale and quite often careful scrutiny is not given the subject with reference to the quality of the paint to be used.

EXPERIENCE IS A GOOD TEACHER. TEST THE QUALITY.

It is a good idea to learn the composition of the paint you intend to use. There is a difference.

The printed formula appears on every package of Hanna's Green Seal Paint.

This is an evidence of good faith and attests the confidence the makers have in their product.

The following letter, written by a former Kentuckian in Coffeyville, Kas., to the Winchester News, is of special interest in Lincoln for many Lincoln county men have gone west in search of better things:

"Allow me to say the longer I live and the more of this old mundane hemisphere I see the more thoroughly I am convinced that the Bluegrass region of Kentucky is equal to any part of the United States, and a hundred times superior to almost all parts of the world I have ever seen."

"Your country is more popular here in Kansas than you give yourselves credit for a home. And why? Because mankind knows not how to appreciate a good thing until it is lost. If you people there would work one-half as hard as the commercial clubs of our Western cities work the emigration would soon be from West to East, instead of from East to West. Your State today can offer more inducements to the man hunting a home where a living can be easily made, health, pleasure and longevity of life will be guaranteed by the natural climatic conditions and the results desired are a most certain to follow an honest effort for a livelihood. You can average each year about two bushels of grain to our one. Your turkey crop is worth more than all the swine raised in Kansas."

"In conclusion I would recommend that every farmer in Clark county move to Winchester and make it a modern 'Paris,' and let us hungry, unfortunate people out West here come back there and rent your farms as we have learned by experience we can make more money there on rented land of our own."

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of my dear grandmother, Elizabeth Leach.

And has she gone forever gone, and left us here to weep, till we are called to follow her and in the grave to sleep. But since she could no longer stay, to cheer us with her love, we hope to meet her again, in your bright world above.

Her loving granddaughter

Iva Bailey.

In memoriam of Mrs. Eliza Blanton who departed this life, May 30th, 1911. Gone but not forgotten by her many friends and relatives. She leaves a loving father, Mr. Malon Irvin, six children and several sisters and brothers to mourn her loss.

Weep not dear friends for her loss is your gain. She has gone home to her Blessed Savior, where she will never have to part again, as she said in her dying hours she was going to her sweet home. She is happy now with her dear companion, who left only a short year ago, where now they can sing around their Savior and His angels. Oh, what a grand thought to know her sorrows are ended forever now. Dearest friend, though you have left us here, thy lost I deeply feel, but tis God who has bereft us; he care all our sorrows ahead. A precious one from us has gone, a voice we loved is still; a place is vacant in the home, that never can be filled. God in his wisdom has recalled the boon of love he gave us, so while her body alights here her Soul is safe in heaven.

A friend.
